

AFGHAN WIRELESS LAUNCHES 4G LTE NETWORK SERVICE IN NIMROZ PROVINCE

AWCC, Afghanistan's Only 4G LTE Provider, Extends Service to Nimroz, Continues Rapid Expansion of 4G LTE Communications Network Throughout Country

Kabul, Afghanistan?December 5, 2017?Afghan Wireless Communication Company (AWCC) (www.afghan-wireless.com), Afghanistan's first mobile communications company, the founder of Afghanistan's mobile communications industry, and Afghanistan's only provider of 4G LTE HD Voice, data, entertainment and mobile payment services to over 5,000,000 consumers and businesses, announced today that it has expanded the Company's 4G LTE network to Nimroz Province (Zaranj city)

Since the debut of AWCC's 4G LTE network in May 2017, Afghan Wireless remains the nation's only provider of 4G LTE communications services. The extension of AWCC's proprietary, high-speed 4G LTE network to Nimroz Province reflects both the strong and growing demand from Afghan businesses and consumers for world-class, high speed communications services, and the continued successful strategic implementation of a rapid and robust expansion of AWCC's 4G LTE network throughout Afghanistan.

?The expansion of AWCC's 4G LTE network to Nimroz, is a wonderful opportunity to provide our subscribers in the province with the fastest, clearest communications and data services in Afghanistan,? said Mr. Amin Ramin, the Managing Director of AWCC.

?We are the only provider of global-class 4G LTE communications services in Afghanistan,? Mr. Amin said. ?AWCC will continue to lead and dominate the 4G LTE sector, and we intend to continue the aggressive and successful expansion of AWCC's 4G LTE network, so that our service becomes available to every Afghan, everywhere throughout our nation.?
